

RICHARD COLLIER

Vice President for Student Affairs

Richard Collier is CNSE Vice President for Student Affairs. He received his B.A. in Latin and M.A. in Classics from the University at Albany. Prior to joining CNSE, Mr. Collier spent more than 40 years working at the University at Albany, where he held a variety of leadership positions, including Senior Staff Associate for Institutional Research, Planning, and Effectiveness; Assistant Dean of Undergraduate Education; Director of the General Education Honors Program, and Editor of the Undergraduate Bulletin, among many others.

While at the University at Albany, Mr. Collier also held several elected positions, including SUNY Senator; Vice President and Secretary of the SUNY-wide University Faculty Senate; and Secretary of the University at Albany Senate. He has also chaired the SUNY Senate's Undergraduate Committee and Student Life Committee, and served as a representative on various SUNY-wide and University task forces.

In recognition of his professional achievements, Mr. Collier has been the recipient of the Student Association's Outstanding Adviser of the Year Award and the President's Award for Excellence in Professional Service.

Contact Information:

Richard Collier
CNSE Vice President of Student Affairs
SUNY Polytechnic Institute
Colleges of Nanoscale Science and Engineering
257 Fuller Road
Albany, New York 12203
Phone: (518) 956-7340
rcollier@sunycnse.com